The Kay Bain Weiner Glass Art Educational Foundation (KBW Foundation) is a non-profit organization whose mission is to stimulate and promote interest in glass art through educational projects.

To encourage the teaching of glass art in public schools and colleges, the non-profit KBW Foundation is offering grants to Public School Art Instructors who are presently teaching glass art at a public school. These $250 grant certificates can be used for the regular school semester program or a summer session and can be redeemed at art glass retail stores for glass supplies for classes.

You choose the art glass retailer. The KBW Foundation will then pay $250.00 directly to the retailer for glass supplies of your choice.
